NATALIYA SAPRYKINA has a law degree. During her studies at the university she has been an organizer of international conferences on various subjects.

After graduation she worked as a lawyer for the election campaign. This experience helped her to learn how to make fast decisions, to work under pressure and find creative solutions.

Since 2012 she has been working at the Foundation of Contemporary Art in Moscow. She provides legal support, keeps record of the collection and cooperates with institutions around the world. An important part of her work is organization of exhibitions during international events. This multifarious activity requires high concentration, responsibility and dedication.

Nataliya is engaged in several projects, not always related to the art. She communicates with representatives of different cultures, social classes, and nations. She can easily build a dialogue and believes that it is always possible to reach a compromise that satisfies all parties.

Nataliya works with Avesta Group as a legal expert on the territory of Russian Federation.
